- 3.1 The EFA Committee is responsible for the overall organization.

- 3.2 The Sports Commission of the EFA (SC-EFA) is responsible for the overall technical organization in accordance with these regulations.

It shall decide on the interpretation of these regulations as well as alterations and necessary amendments which cannot await a regular decision by the EFA Committee.

- 3.3 Associations wishing to host this event shall submit their applications twenty-four months prior to the event to the chairman of the Sports Commission EFA

The host association shall be designated by the EFA Committee.

If no applications are given, the EFA Committee determines the organizing member federation, on rotation basis.

4 Eligibility to Compete

- 4.1 Eligibility is met if the membership fee of the current year has been paid to IFA through the own member federation:
- For the three of the last championship-winning European member federations, the 2nd and 3rd placed teams of the previous year's men's national championships are eligible
 - For the remaining European member federations, the 2nd place teams of the men's national championships in the previous year are eligible
 - the European Cup winner of the previous year is eligible
- 4.1.1 As the previous year's cup winner is eligible according to par. 4.1, the next-placed team in the national championships is additionally eligible to enter.
- 4.1.2 The member federations may enter their national cup winners in lieu of the 2nd/3rd-place teams,.
- 4.1.3 The European member organizations must enter the eligible clubs including their addresses promptly after completion of the national championship to the chairman of the Sports Commission EFA, with a copy to the organizer.
- 4.1.4 In the case of an odd number of teams entered, the SK-EFA can increase the number of participants in order to reach an even number, whereas in consideration of par. 4.1.6 the next-placed teams of the national championships are to be considered, with priority going to the hosting member organization.
- 4.1.5 If a team waives its eligibility, the team placing after them in the national championships moves up.
- 4.1.6 Should a team not participate in spite of qualification, it loses its eligibility in all European club cup contests for the following year.
- 4.2 Each association may enter 10 players in total, with 5 players and 5 substitutes competing in individual matches.
- These 10 players are to be submitted to the competition management on the form "Team registration" before the start of the event.
- 4.3 Players must be eligible to play for the relevant club at the time of the tournament, and may not have been eligible to play for any other club at less than one month before the start of the event.
